Speakers
Prof Carol JONES
Ms Can TO

of Birmingham University will talk about the political circumstances of Hong Kong during the mid-1960s in general and her critical remarks about the newly released documentary entitled "YP 1967: History repeats itself" in particular. Her lecture will be preceded by the viewing of the said documentary. The moderator and discussant is Dr Wong Man Kong of Hong Kong Baptist University.

This documentary film is about their love and hate towards their country, their honour and dishonour as a convicted criminal, their condonation and condemnation of the parties involved, and their truthseeking and reconciliation with the past. This documentary film is produced by CANTO WORKS, directed by CAN TO, and written by JENNY LEE.
