

第十屆近代中國基督教史國際學術研討會

The 10th International Symposium on the History of Christianity in Modern China

St. John's Church Property, Hankow

Thank you very much for your letter and opinion (dated September 29th last) on the above problem. We consider it on the whole preferable that the property should be registered in the name of H.B.M. Consul-General.

Stockley writes: "The church was destroyed by bombs, and the graves, though somewhat battered, are still extant. The part of the compound allocated for a grave yard is virtually full, and the rest consists either of the remains of foundations or of what were once presumably lawns surrounding the church.

With regard to the object of the original trust created by the Crown in 1874, namely the provision of facilities for a cemetery, and for worship 'as nearly as may be in conformity with.....the Established Church throughout England and Wales.....', it is
